Whitehall, September 5.

AN humble Addreſs of the Aſſembly of Antigua, held at the Town of St. John's June the 26th 1721, having been tranſmitted hither, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Stockholm, Aug. 16. Notwithſtanding the Weather is already grown very cold, the King of Sweden continues ſtill at Wyksberg; and it is ſaid the Waters he drinks there have had ſo good an Effect, that his Majeſty has now got quite rid of his Ague and Fever. This Morning early the Queen went to viſit the King. As the Weather is become pretty boiſterous, Sir John Norris went down this Morning to Capel-Share, in order to remove the Fleet under his Command from thence to Elſnab.

Berne, Sept. 3. Letters from Schafhuyſen of the 28th paſt adviſe, that the Peaſants of Wilchingen are deaf to all Remonſtrances and Exhortations of the four Deputies from the late General Dyet: Inſtead of asking Pardon and ſubmitting to the Government of Schafhuyſen, they pretend to an abſolute Indempnity; and demand not only a Reſtitution of their Privileges, but ſeveral Reſervations, and the Right of appealing to the Emperour in all their Affairs, declaring openly that they will never detach themſelves from his Imperial Majeſty; they even demand Satisfaction for the Damages they have ſuſtained during this Diſpute. The Deputation at Schafhuyſen was conſulting how to bring over theſe refractory People, but found it difficult to agree upon proper Meaſures. The General Dyet of the three Leagues of the Griſons is to aſſemble To-Morrow at Coire.

Hambourg, Sept. 5. The King and Queen of Denmark will come To-Morrow to Altena, where their Majeſties will ſtay but two Days, and then go back to Sleſwyck; where all the Nobility of that Dutchy did Homage Yeſterday, and took an Oath of Fidelity to the King.

Berlin, Sept. 6. Major General Meyer, the Daniſh Envoy at this Court, having received Orders by a Courier on the 3d Inſtant to repair immediately to Holſtein to wait on the King, had Audience of Leave of his Pruſſian Majeſty the 4th, and began his Journey thither Yeſterday. M. Scheuler the Daniſh Secretary received Yeſterday a Letter of Notification of the Prince Royal's Marriage, for this Court.

Paris, Sept. 10. On the 8th Inſtant in the Afternoon the King took the Diverſion of Hunting, and in the Evening his Majeſty went to Vanure a Seat of the Duke of Bourbon, who entertained his Majeſty with a magnificent Collation, and a Conſort of Muſick. The whole Houſe, together with the Terraſs-Walks, were illuminated, and there were fine Fire-Works which laſted till Nine of the Clock, when the King returned to the Tuilleries; the reſt of the Company remained there at Supper. A Council of Regency was held on the 7th, but no Reſolution was taken therein (as was expected) with Relation to the Paper-Effects that have been examined. It is ſaid this Matter is referred to another Council of Regency, which is to meet on the 14th, and which probably will be the laſt till the Vacation is over. It has been agreed that during this Vacation the Chamber of Vacations eſtabliſhed by the Parliament, ſhall not regiſter any Edicts or Declarations relating to the preſent State of the Finances. Mr. William Law's Wife who went ſome Time ago to Venice, is returned lately from thence. It is ſaid ſhe has brought with her ſeveral Writings drawn up by Mr. John Law for the Juſtification of his Brother, who is ſtill Priſoner in Fort l'Eveque. M. Brenner, a Canon of Presbourg in Hungary, who has reſided here ſome Time as Agent to Prince Ragotski, was ſent ſome Days ago to the Baſtille, being accuſed of having converted to his own Uſe large Sums of Money which he had received for the Prince his Maſter. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Orleans has been out of Order for ſome Days, but is now much better. The Cardinal de Mailly is ſaid to be dangerouſly ill in his Dioceſe of an Apoplexy. It is believed that in caſe of his Death the Abbot St. Albin will ſucceed him in his Archbiſhoprick of Rheims. According to Advices from
